GESSI Continuance (Suspension) Selection Agreement for Insured in the Period of Non-Childbearing Leave without Pay

For the right and benefit of insured, please read the following instruction carefully then fill in the agreement:

1. No matter what the GESSI selection is continuance or suspension, the insured within the Period of Non-Childbearing Leave without Pay (excluding military service) should fill in and submit two copies of agreements in 60 days from the effective date. One is given to insured unit for reference use and the other is transferred by insured unit to the department of government Employees Insurance for process use. If the decision has been made, the selection can never be changed.
2. At the expiration day of the leave without pay, if the insured apply for or extend leave without pay by the same reason at the same insured unit, the selection of continuance (suspension) can not be different from the original.
3. The rights and benefit of continuance (suspension) selection:
 - (1) continuance selection:
 - (i) Pay full portion of premium.
 - (ii) The seniority of the period of leave without pay can be counted as effective seniority of insurance.
 - (iii) If insured events occur during the period of leave without pay, the insured can ask for cash benefit payment.
 - (2) suspension selection:
 - (i) If payment of the premium stopped, the insured can not ask to change the type of selection to be continuance selection.
 - (ii) The period of leave without pay can not be counted as seniority of insurance.
 - (iii) If insured events of disable, death and dependents' funeral occur during the period of leave without pay, or the insured applies for retirement or severance before reinstating, the insured can not ask for cash benefit payment.
4. If the insured selects the continuance insurance, he/she should not joint any kind of social insurance (Labor insurance, Farmers' Insurance, military personnel insurance). Otherwise the insurance will be made void as mistake case, once the reduplication on insurance being discovered. Moreover, there will be no return on paid premium, but the received cash benefit has to be given back.
