Those who have been employed less than 15 years shall only be given the lump sum consolation payment without another annual consolation payment. The teachers and school staff shall earn 1.5 units per year; however, if the odd amount in addition to the round employed time is less than 6 months, 1 unit will be given; if the odd amount in addition to the round employed time is more than 6 months but less than 1 year, it shall be regarded as 1 year.</li><li>2. Those who have been employed for more than 15 years will</li></ol> be given the annual consolation payment with 5 units per year. In addition, those who have been employed for 15 years will be given the lump sum consolation payment with 15 units; an extra 0.5 unit shall be given per year after the previous 15 years of employment. If the odd amount in addition to the round employed time is less than 6 months, it shall not be taken into account; if the odd amount in addition to the round employed time is more than 6 months but less than 1 year, it shall be regarded as 1 year. The maximum units shall be 25.

At the calculation of the units, the teachers and school staff' s last basic pay at the post shall be doubled. The units of the annual consolation payment shall be given in accordance with the adjusted basic pay of the teachers and school staff who serves in the same level school and receive the same salary.

Article 4-1 If teachers and school staff have received the “cash payment in lieu of basic necessities” for themselves and their family dependents and subsidies for their family dependents at the death, an additional “cash payment in lieu of basic necessities” and subsidies shall be dispensed as follows:

1. The lump sum consolation payment dispensed in accordance with Article 4 shall be added another month of “cash payment in lieu of basic necessities” for school teachers and staff per unit; another two-year “cash payment in lieu of basic necessities” and subsidies for their family dependents shall also be dispensed.

2. The annual consolation payment dispensed in accordance with Article 4 shall be added another “cash payment in lieu of basic necessities” for teachers and school staff and their family dependents and subsidies for their family dependents.

Article 5 Those who died when performing the duties refer to the following conditions:

1. Died due to risking dangers or on the battlefield in the line of duty; or,
2. Died due to the dangers triggered by performing functions; or,
3. Died due to the mishap or illness caused by doing the public errand; or,
4. Died due to the accidents occurred in the office.

Those mentioned in the preceding paragraph shall be given the consolation payment in accordance with Articles 4 and 4-1; an extra 25 % of lump sum consolation payment shall be given. However, an extra 50 % of the lump sum consolation payment shall be given to those who died due to risking dangers or on the battlefield in the line of duty.

Those mentioned in each subparagraph of Paragraph 1, if being employed less than 15 years, shall be regarded as being employed for 15 years. However, those mentioned in Subparagraph 1, if being employed for over 15 years but less than 35 years, shall be regarded as being employed for 35 years.

Article 6 If teachers and school staff died after being employed for over 20 years and had made a will, in which they claimed their unwillingness abide by Subparagraph 2 of Paragraph 1 of Article 4 and Article 4-1 when applying for the consolation payment, “cash payment in lieu of basic necessities” and subsidies for their family dependents, the lump sum consolation payment, “cash payment in lieu of basic necessities” and subsidies for their family dependents may be dispensed in accordance with the standard of lump sum pension of Statute Governing the Retirement of Teachers and School Staff. The same applies to the surviving dependents, whom no wills have been left for and who are not willing to abide by Subparagraph 2 of Paragraph 1 of Article 4 and Article 4-1 to apply for the consolation payment.

The lump sum consolation payment added in accordance with Paragraph 2 of the preceding Article shall be calculated pursuant to Subparagraph 2 of Paragraph 1 of Article 4 and Article 4-1.

Article 7      The amount of the lump sum consolation payment may be increased for the teachers and school staff with the national medal of honor or special achievements; the increase standards shall be reported by the Ministry of Education to Executive Yuan and ratified by Executive Yuan thereafter.

Article 8      (Repealed)

Article 9      The priority for the surviving dependents of teachers and school staff to receive the consolation payment is as follows:
